vs.)	ORDER

)
Defendants.)

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Victor Rodriguez (Rodriguez) (Filing No. 93). Rodriguez seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter which is scheduled for October 5, 2009. Rodriguez's counsel has represented to the court that Rodriguez will submit an affidavit wherein Rodriguez represents that he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Rodriguez's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted and trial will continued as to both defendants.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Rodriguez's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 93) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for November 9, 2009, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between October 1, 2009 and November 9, 2009, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 1st day of October, 2009.
